

MORE THAN A SANDWICH

We've always been committed to SUPPORTING THE LOCAL SCHOOLS in our communities, but a classmate of our Co-Founders' daughter INSPIRED US TO THINK GLOBAL.

Original School

2017

Nam Harrison, a classmate of our co-founders' daughter, visits his birth country of Vietnam for the first time since his adoption in 2007. He decides to give back.

OCT 2017

After seeing the shack that the ethnic minority C'Tu tribe uses for a school, Nam gives up his birthday presents, instead asking friends and family to help him raise money to build a new school for the children he met in Vietnam.

JUN 2018

Mario & Ellen's daughter Ella finds out about what Nam is doing and tells her parents. They are so moved, they work with Mendo's chef to create a special charity banh mi to put on the menu.

Ella & Nam

OCT 2018

Mendo's guests embrace the cause and order thousands of sandwiches, helping raise $10K for the school! Mendo presents the check to Nam on his 11th birthday.

Raised $10K!

AUG 2019

The Alua Primary School is complete! Nam and his family attend the school's dedication ceremony and he realizes they'll need much more than a building to make a good school. They'll need ongoing support for books, supplies, and most importantly, money for better teachers.

The New School

This Fall, LET'S COME TOGETHER AGAIN to support Nam in this incredible cause. It can start just BY ENJOYING A BANH MI!

Nam Harrison is an 11-year-old schoolmate of our Co-Founders' daughter. Adopted from Vietnam, he wants to help give back. Last year, our guests helped Nam raise enough money to build a primary school in rural Vietnam. This year, a portion of the proceeds from every sandwich sold will go to pay for teachers and supplies.
